Public Notice

NOTICE

At the March 5, 2024 meeting of the Eddy County Commission, a Preliminary Resolution was passed, pursuant to N.D.C.C. Chapter 11-10.2, to change the currently elected offices of Eddy County Auditor and Treasurer to appointed offices. As required by state law, the plan for the implementation of this change is published below. The Eddy County Commission will be holding public hearings regarding the adoption of a final resolution in this matter on March 26, 2024 at 9:00 a.m. and April 2, 2024 at 9:00 a.m., both in the Commissioner's Meeting Room in the basement of the Eddy County Courthouse. Interested parties are invited to attend or submit written comments to the Eddy County Commission, Attn.: Becki Schumacher, 524 Central Ave, New Rockford, ND 58356, prior to that time.

PLAN FOR REDESIGNATION OF THE OFFICE OF EDDY COUNTY AUDITOR AND TREASURER TO APPOINTED POSITIONS

The Eddy County Commission has resolved to consider the redesignation of the currently elected offices of Eddy County Auditor and Treasurer to appointed offices. Currently, the Auditor's and Treasurer's positions are elected. There are no minimum qualifications for any person to run for these positions, other than being a resident of Eddy County at least eighteen (18) years of age. Making these positions appointed will ensure the County has the most qualified people in these roles.

Specifically, the Auditor is tasked with acting as the Chief Financial Officer for the County, which includes handling taxes and budgeting. The Auditor is also the Election Administrator for all primary, general and special county, state and federal elections. Finally, the Auditor is the secretary for the County Commission. There are numerous other responsibilities for the Auditor that extend to maintaining inventories, ensuring insurance coverage, verifying daily cash sheets of the County Treasurer,
