

HOMECOMING

NEW ROCKFORD TRANSCRIPT
 MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2022
 Page A6

HOMECOMING

SEPT 12-16
 2022
 MR-S
 ROCKETS

Freshmen Easton Simon, Zac Dockter, Logan Cudworth and Alivia Yri on their 1980s theme float.

Photos by Kyrie O'Connor

Haley Thompson and Emmett Guler partner up for a Pep Rally game.

Karsyn Wetzel and Paige Knatterud kept score during the volleyball match on Tuesday.

Homecoming Royalty were recognized at halftime of the football game Friday. From left to right: King Haydon Meier, Queen Madisen Myhre, Trevor Waldo, Kyria Dockter, Dawson Clifton, Emma Duda, Taylor Anderson and Hallie Brown. Photo by Nathan Price.

Connor Knatterud and Lucy Meier do battle at the net in the annual volleyball match. The volleyball team easily defeated the football team.

Right: Malaki Kukowski impersonated Martin Luther King Jr. on the eighth grade class float depicting the 1960s. Below: The sophomores won top honors for their float representing the 1970s: Kage Walford, Ava Bullinger, Bennett Meier, Bailey Jacobson, Kaiya O'Connor, Dakota Clelland, Jacob Louters, stowaway eighth grader Aaden Benson, Addison Wallace and Andrew Storstad.

Volleyball players take part in a game during the Pep Rally Friday, from left to right: Ava Bullinger, Lucy Meier, Madisen Myhre, Kelsie Belquist and Ava Peterson.

Juniors show their spirit in the parade: DJ Mudgett, Connor Knatterud, Lucy Meier, Luke Yri, Kelsie Belquist, Claire Becker and Lora Wobbema.

Second place honors in the float decorating contest went to the 7th grade class. Standing: Koy Zieman and Ayden Gable; Seated: Beau Baumbach, Alex Knatterud and Jax Demester.

STEAM THRESHERS

NEW ROCKFORD TRANSCRIPT
 MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2022
 Page A7

Steam, Smoke and Smiles

Photos by Amy Wobberna

Machines of all sizes were on display at the Eddy County Fairgrounds Sept. 16-18, 2022, as the 34th Annual Central North Dakota Steam Threshers Reunion rolled into town. Above, in Miniature Land Sarah Simons and Terry made miniature straw bales.

2
0
2
2

featuring:
 Rumely

Gene Hartl and his grandson behind the wheel of his John Deere tractor.

Jersey Allmaras (center) and her cousins rode through the parade Sunday in a John Deere wagon.

Dakota Marsaa behind the wheel of the late Verle Marsaa's Rumely Oil Pull.

Larry MacDonald of Devils Lake drives a Rumely Oil Pull from the Dale and Martha Hawk Museum.

Above: Ty Halldorsen and Lance Straabe roll through the parade in Mark Pedersen's 80 hp Case.

Left: Pete Mandt and Monte Rodacker on Pete's Rumely.

Engineer Kevin Johnson waves from behind the controls of a Nichols and Shepard Red River Special during the parade. The engine was formerly owned by CNDSTR founder Ole Aslaksen.

Blacksmiths Nate Lagasse and Dean Hagen demonstrate to a family at the show.

Dan Shroyer and Tom Anderson roll through the parade on Anderson's 1913 25-85 hp Nichols and Shepard steam traction engine.